

Michael Klein Arts

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

It's not all bad news out there; here some news you can use...

Operating without a space my intention is to pursue projects, exhibitions, commissions and sales with the artists I am representing and others. Consulting with private collectors and institutions.

Relocating to Manhattan: new address 3647 Broadway, Apt 6F New York, NY 10031 as March 1st.

Teaching NYU new certificate program in art business

Website to launch later this spring, www.michaelkleinarts.com

<http://www.michaelkleinarts.com>

new articles on www.theartsection.com

<http://www.theartsection.com>

Some exhibitions of note:

Sanford Biggers installation at Solvent Space in Richmond, VA and forthcoming project for Carnival Within in Berlin opening in late March.

Beverly Semmes participating in a major ceramic exhibition entitled Dirt on Delight, Impulses that Form Clay, at the ICA, Philadelphia and her inclusion in Motion Blur- American Crafts at Gustavsbergs Konsthof Jene Highstein's new monograph on his early pipe installation published by Charta will be released in the spring and an exhibition of early works at Bjorn Ressel Gallery this spring.

Elaine Reichel is part of an exhibition Knitted Worlds at the Textielmuseum, Tilburg, the Netherlands

Forthcoming survey show of his twenty-five year career,

Ken Lum, will open at the Vancouver Art Gallery in early 2010.